Information about this year's Art at the Crossroads

This year Art at the Crossroads is happening in partnership with the Millwald Theater's Apple Atcha Fest: A Celebration of the Arts. The Apple Atcha Fest is being hosted by the Millwald Theater. The entire weekend, Thursday through Saturday, the Apple Atcha Fest will be showcasing Appalachian artists and musicians in various performances and demonstrations. Art at the Crossroads will be the art vending portion of the festival and will last until 4pm on Saturday, September 23rd, at which time you may start to pack up. Every entry will be required to stay from 10am-4pm.

If you need assistance with setting up or someone to help sit you space while taking a break, please let us know. We will have volunteers available to assist you.

Thank you!!!
